"Circulation Books Open to All."

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1894.

SMITH'S GANG

"Silver Dollar" Said by Witness to Control Many Police Justices.

GAMBLING PRIVILEGES SOLD.

Mrs. Monahan Tells How She Vainly Tried to Have Disorderly Houses Closed.

HARRY MINER TO BE A WITNESS.

Collins Admits He Tells Lies When Drunk---Has Goff Seen Byrnes ?

was reflected in the small attendance when the Lexow Committee began its session to-day. The absence of very sensational disclosures has resulted in an apparent loss of interest. Among the spectators this morning ongressman-elect Harry Miner. It was supposed at first that he was there only from motives of curiosity, but later it developed that he had been

It was reported that Mr. Goff and week relative to the latter's testimony not affirm or deny the report.

The first witness called to-day was John J. Ferguson, who swore that three Policeman Bambrich. Mrs. Katle Monahan said she had tries to get the police to close two disorderly houses on either side of her house, but no attention was paid to her complaint. When she went to court about the mat ter she said Justice Hogan ordered her Finally she got a summons for Mrs Giles, the alleged keeper of the disorder-ly houses, but when the case was called in court, she says, she was not informed of it until it was disposed of.

Just before recess a witness testified that "Silver Dollar" Smith was at the head of a gang which practically controlled many police courts.

It is thought that several of the justices will be called to testify. When the session was called to order, Mr. Moss first put in evidence a schedule of the rewards turned in to the Police Pension Fund by members of the force since 1889, which he has complied from the records. It showed that in 1899 the amount turned in was $66.25; in 1890, $96: 1891, $48; 1892, $223; 1893, $5.

In almost every case the individual contributions were small, usually not exceeding $10, and several were under $5.

Mr. Moss said these items might be use### ful for future reference and they were offered in evidence. Says He Was Clubbed.

The first witness called was John J. Ferguson, of 558 West Forty-fifth street. He could not talk very plainly and Mr. Moss asked him what was the matter. "I lost three of my teeth in the upper jaw on Thanksgiving morning."

Q. Hew did you lose them? A. A policeman struck me in the mouth and knocked them out.

The witness said he stopped at Forty-fourth street and Eighth avenue to buy two crabs. One of them was had and he demanded a fresh one from the dealer. An altercation arose, when Officer Bambrich stepped up and struck him a violent blow in the face, knocking him down.

Q. Had you said anything to the officer. A

Mrs. Ratic Monaism the stand.

She is married, and lives at 247 West Seventeenth street with her husband, and keeps a boarding-house. She is the woman who was spoken of yesterday by Rey, Dr. Wilson as having been persecuted by the police.

cuted by the police.

Q. Your house was a respectable one? A. Yes, sir. The Star Brewing Company owned it.

Q. Die Mys. Glies live near you? A. Yes, she had a house on each side of mine. They were both disorderly houses and men frequently used to come to my house mistaking it for one of Mrs. Glies's.

Complaints Were of No Avail. The witness said she complained to her andlord, the Brewing Company, but was aformed that nothing could be done. informed that nothing could be done.

Q Did you go to Capt. Donohus about it? A.
Yes, but although he said he knew they were disorderly houses, he could not do anything to get Mrs. Giles out.

Q. What did you do then? A. I went to see Stopt. Byruse, rie went out of his office as I went in, and I only saw one of his men. I told him my story, and he took it down. The next day Mrs. Giles stop-sed me in the street, right before an officer and told me swerything I had said at the Central Office. She inmitted me, and the policeman would not stop her.

Told to Go Home.

Continuing her story, Mrs. Monahan and she went to Justice Hogan, and was told by him to go home and not trouble the sourt with such matters. She then went to Justice Taintor, who told her to get a summons, which she did, and brought the landlord into court. She walted all the morning and not hearing the case called, asked Justice Hogan about it, and was told that it had been called and disposed of "This surprised me, and I told him I had not heard it. But he said I had better, and told me to go home and she heard it. But he said I had better, and told me to go home and she heard it. But he said I had better, and told me to go home and she heard it. But he said I had not heard it. But he said I had better, and told me to go home and heard hat the Tenderion was a notorious precinct for loose characters and level women. He did not see so much of it himself.

He was asked that the replied in the knew of special officers receiving money to permit women to parade the street, and he replied that he never heart of it.

Chairman Lexow asked Mr. Goff if the refused to see her.

The witness and that after she saw Mr. Jerome and taked with him she went back to Capt. Donohus, but he refused to see her.

On the first of the next month Miss

Hard to Get Witnesses to Attend.

The counsel then told the Committee that he was having great difficulty in getting witnesses to attend, especially the police witnesses, and that if it continued the Committee would have to suspend operations and spend a week or so before the Grand Jury.

"Our men have been out continually for the last two nights, but have not been able to find these absent witnesses, and it has interfered greatly with our work," said he. "They plead sickness and other excuses, and they are continually coming to me to be excused."

Miner Wanted to He Excused.

It came out at this point that Congressman-elect Harry Miner had been subpoensed. Senator O'Connor said that Mr. Miner told nim he was suffering with a headache, and wanted to be let off. "I can't do it," said Mr. Goff. "It's e way all the witnesses talk. He must the way all the witnesses tall.

stay."

Mr. Miner looked very much grieved at this, and Chairman Lexow, who had meantime come in and taken his place with the Conmi'tee, said that Mr. Miner should remember that some of the Senators had come hundreds of miles to conduct the investigation, and incidentally notified all witnesses that frivolous excuses would not be accepted.

Saw Menkim First.

Charles Weissbecker, who keeps a meat market in One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, testified that he had occasionally had trouble with the police in regard of delivering goods on the sidewalk, but he had never paid any money for privileges. Q. Didn't you see Capt. Meakim this morning? b. Well, yes (hesitatingly), I did. I stopped in on

Mr. Weissbecker was interrupted at this point, and Terence Leonard, a badly Reward Offered to Get Him Drunk.

The witness said two years ago Officer Reffer offered any one $25 who would get him (Heyman) drunk so that he could arrest him.

The next witness was Isaac Stern, of the firm of Stern Broa., who testified that it was the custom of the firm to ask the Police Department for a special detail of police at their store during the holiday season and pay their salaries to the Police Board.

"We usually give the men a few dollars or a Christmas present in addition to their salaries," he said.

William S. Muxlow, an expressman, of 1287 Third avenue, the next witness, and that several years ago he and his

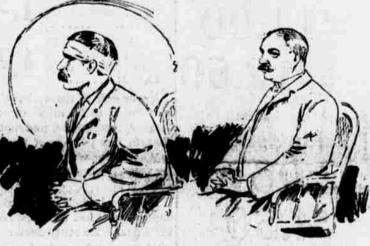

"SILVER DOLLAR" SMITH.

Told He Could Buy His Feedom "On arriving at the court, Campbell told my father in my presence that he could get him off without a trial for $500. He said he had to fig it with the Captain, and could get my father discharged without any trouble.

"My father refused to give up the money, and was afterwards tried and henorably acquitted of the charge. Campbell, however, did all he could after the refusal to pay the money to try to have my father convicted, but he did not succeed."

Mr. Moss said the only reason why he had not called Muxlow, sr., was because

TERENCE LEONARD. CHARLES WEISSBECKER.

bruised looking individual, with his head

"I lost three of my teeth in the upper jaw on Thanksgiving morning."

Q. Bew did you lose them? A. A policeman struck me in the menth and knocked them out.

Tie witness said he stopped at Forty-fourth street and Eighth avenue to buy two crabs. One of them was bad and he demanded a fresh one from the dealer. An altercation arose, when Officer Bambeich stepped up and struck him a violent blow in the face, knocking him down.

Q. Had you said anything to the officer? A. Not a word. He struck me without saying a word to me.

He said he had made a complaint against Bambrich at Police Headquariers but Mr. Moss advised him to present the case to the District-Attorney. Ferguson said he would do so.

Mrs. Katle Monahan was then called to the stand.

She is married, and lives at 247 West Seventeenth street with her husband, and keeps a boarding-house. She is the woman who was spoken of yesterday by Rey. Dr. Wilson as having been persecuted by the police.

Q. Your house was a respectable one? A. Yes,

He said he had been beaten by Dennis Healy, s saloon-keeper at Catharine and Oak streets. He said he had committed no provocation, but his business kept him out late, and he did not want to go home and rours his family at that hour of the might, and as he wanted to go to early mass. He was beaten.

He said he had committed no provocation, but his business kept him out late, and he did not want to go home and rours his family at that hour of the might, and as he wanted to go to early mass. He was beaten.

He described how he had been beaten by Dennis Healy, s saloon-keeper at Catharine and Oak streets, as aloon-keeper at Catharine and Oak streets, and Oak streets, as at 4 o'clock, a week ago Sunday morning.

He said he had committed no provocation, but his business kept him out late, and he did not want to go home and rours his family at that hour of the might and rours his family at that hour of the might and the want to go home and rours his family at that hour of the might have he was beaten.

To be said he had committed no

the firm. All he got was his regular salary.

He said he wore citizen's dress and took no orders from any one in the store, but was under Supt. Byrnes's orders.

Officer Kenny said he had frequently been assigned to special duty by the Captain to arrest street-walkers at night. In such cases he always used his own judgment as to the making of arrests. He could tell the character of the women by their actions.

Nearly every woman he had ever arrested had been fined or sent to the island, the witness said. He could not remember the names of any of the women he had arrested.

Q. How came you to be in a Sixth avenue saloon at 5 o'clock in the morning, not lone age, drinking with a well-known gambler and three women? A. I don't remember any surh occurrence.
Q if I say that one of the girls answered to the name of Clara and another Tillia, does that refresh your memory? A It does not I was never there.
Q Will you swear it positively? A I will.

POLICEMAN KENNY.

have said something about paying Capt.
Allaire money, but he must have been drunk if he did, and it was a lie.

Admits He Is a Liar. Q. Didn't you tail some of your neighbors in Brooklyn ship a day or two ago that you had paid Capt. Allaire Elo a month for ten years? A. I did not, that I remember. If I did I simply lied.

The witness declared that Charles S. Smith had a regularly organized gang which ran things in the Essex Market Court.

"You can't get a man convicted there if the gang decides against it. Martin Engel is the head of the gang. Max Hochstim is another one of the men in the gang. Hochstim is another one of the men in the gang.

Leuftman said that Pommerany had paid $75 to Smith for the privilege of running a gambling place, and got into trobule with the gang. In revenge Pommerany, at the witness's suggestion, sent a letter to Supt. Byrnes giving him a list of all the gambling places in the neighborhood protected by Smith and Hochstim.

To the Committee the witness said he had lived in that locality for nineteen years, and all that time the gang had been at work. The judges in the Police Court were in with them, and would do whatever the gang desired.

Wants the Judges to Appear.

Wants the Judges to Appear. Wants the Judges to Appear.

"Why don't you bring some of these judges here and let us examine them, Mr. Moss thought it would be a good idea, and added that without the protection of the police justices such wrongs could not be perpetrated. Justices Hogan and Koch, he said, were become friends of "Silver Dollar" Smith, and often were seen in his saloon.

The witness was told by the Chairman to tell all he knew and he would be fully protected by the Committee.

"I am able to protect myself," he replied. "I have been in this country twenty-two years, and I know my rights. I am not afraid of them, for I know their rascality and could send them to prison."

Platient: Bank Examiner Kimbell is being very red and Compreller Schies is looking or a seitable man to assit him. The job will did not that I remember. If I did I simply lied.

Q. Do you often tell lies? A. Yes, I'm always lying when I'm drank.

Collins repeated his denials several times, although Mr. Mosa held up vividity before him the terrible penalties of perjury. He was finally excused.

Dr. Parkhurst came in shortly after noon and watched the examination of the witness. It is the first time he has appeared at the hearings since Monday.

Max Leuftman testified that he was on the bonds of three or four persons who had been held in Essex Market Court. I simply went on the bonds at the request of Mr. Smith who guaranteed that the men would appear.

Q. That was Silver Dollar Smith! A. Some people call him that.

Q. You know Joe Pomeroy? A. Yes, but at the request of Mr. Smith, who got the monoy for the londs. Pomeroy had a game in the back of his salcen.

Says Smith Has a Gang.

The witness declared that Charles S. Smith had a regularly organized gang which ran things in the Essex Market Court.

You can't get a man convicted there if the gang decides against it. Martin Engel is the head of the gang. Max of the gang decides against it. Martin Engel is the head of the gang. Max Hochstim is another one of the men in

COL. STRONG IS SWORN IN. Takes the Oath of Office This Morning in Court. Mayor-elect William L. Strong took the oath of office at 10.50 o'clock this morning before Justice Barrett in Part I. of the Special Term of the Supreme Court. The small court-room was crowded. Col. Strong's open dispute with Thom as C. Platt has caused a great deal of talk among politicians. His denial of Platt's view that a straight Republican

GET HIGHER UP SOMEHOW!

Stephenson the First Police Captain to Be Convicted.

He Refuses to Make a Statement at Present.

Shafer on Ingraham's Charge-He Will Appeal the Case.

THE RECORD TO DATE.

CONVICTED. Ex-Police Capt. John T. Stephenson, in-dicted for bribery, found guilty. Penalty, imprisonment for not less than five nor more than ten years, or a fine of $5,000,

TO RE TRIED. Police Capt. Max Schmittberger, West Thirtieth Street Station, indicted to Ex-Police Capt. Michael Doberty, it dicted for bribery.

Ex-Sergt. Charles A. Parkinson, indicted for bribery.

Ex-Sergt. Felix McKenna, indicted for bribery. Ex-Sergt. Hugh Clark, indicted for bribery. Ex-Sergt. James W. Jordan, indicted

Ex Sergt. George Leibers, indicted for Ex-Word Man James Burns, Indicted for bribery. Ex-Ward Man Bernard Mechan, In Ex-Ward Man George Smith, indicted for bribery. John Thomas Stephenson, late Captain of police at the Leonard street station, for the first time in his life found himself in the old gray Tombs prison, not as complainant or committing officer, but He was ushered there by a deputy sheriff about 8 o'clock last night over the "Bridge of Sighs," then first trod by a "pantata." or accused high police offi-cial, which leads from the new Criminal Court building, where in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, before Justice Ingraham and a jury of his peers, after three-quarters of an hour's deliberation he had been convicted of bribery.

The specific offense, as already de-tailed in "The Evening World," was that he accepted baskets of peaches from Fruit Merchant Martin N. Edwards, in Fruit Merchant Martin N. Edwards, in donsideratio: of permitting him to violate the law by obstructing the sidewalk in front of his commission-house during the year 1891.

As stated in "The Evening World's" Night Edition, the jury retired at 4.50. They returned their verdiet at 7.45, the delay, it is said, having been caused by Juror McKeon, who occupied seat No. 3 in the tury box, and is believed to have stood out for acquittal.

EX-Capt Stephenson passed a quiet night, according to his keeper, in cell No. 3 ground tier, of the Old Prison, in the Tombs. In spite of the evident shock he received when the verdiet was rendered, he siept well, it was reported, and arising at 7 o'clock, ate a hearty breakfast.

As has been characteristic of him all through his trial, he then called for all the papers and scanned with eagerness the reports of the proceedings.

ticket would have won is generally taken as indicating that the Democratic or-ganizations which supported Strong will come in for a share of the patronage. The Colonel has not made any definite statement regarding this particular mat-ter as yet, however.

An extra force of men was put to work on the cruiser flan Prancisco in the timber dry-dock, at the Brooklyn Navy-Yerd this morning. to prepare her at once for sea sarvice, of the officers knows where she is going.

Weather Forecast.

The weather forcess for the thirty-six hours eding at 5 P. M. to-morrow is as follows: Fair to-day; Pritay and Saturday slightly cooler, as expected by a cooler startly southwesterly winds.

The following record shows the change in the temperature during forces at the cooler as improved by the thermometer at Perry's Pharmacy; I A. M., 4515 A. M.

STATION HOUSE

If the Elevator Doesn't Suit You Try the Ladder, Mr. Goff.

HE BROKE JORDAN'S NOSE.

Sub-Treasury Row Transferred to a Police Court. Frank M. Jordan, of 218 West One Hundred and Thirty-seventh street, who is said to be a nephew of Assistant Treasurer Conrad N. Jordan, of the Sub-Treasury, appeared at the Tombs Police Court to-day with a broken nose and secured a warrant for the arrest of Wade. W. Rowe, of 358 State street, Brooklyn.

Treasury as bookkeepers. Rowe, the defendant, says he has bee subjected to all sorts of annoyances by New Charges Will Be Drawn Up for Jordan. This morning, Rowe says, he had scarcely seated himself at his deak when he was hit in the head with a wad of paper. He accused Jordan. The lie the shoulder and landed full on Jordan's While young Jordan was very reticen about the affair he admitted that he was through when the blow was struck. Rowe was arrested at his desk and taken to the Tombs Court. He pleaded guilty, but said the assault was provoked. He asked for a trial by jury and was held in default of $500 ball for the Court of General Sessions.

Assistant Treasurer Jordan said: M. Jordan, is my nephew, but he was not appointed by me, having been in the office for some time when I came here. I have absolutely nothing to say about the reported trouble between him and Mr. Rowe."

MRS. FITZGERALD SET FREE.

The Slayer of Mrs. Carrie Pearsall Declared Sane.

Mrs. Catharine Fitzgerald, Police Inspector W. A. McLaughlin's sister, who shot and killed Mrs. Carrie Pearsall several months ago, and was committed to the Middletown Insane Asylum, was who rejoices discharged from custody by Justice Cullen, in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to- One Hundred and Fourth street.

At the trial of Mrs. Fitzgerald the defense set up a plea of insanity, which the jury believed, and found her not guilty. Judge Cowing, before whom the time to catch up with the colored trade case was tried, committed her to the Recently her friends became satisfied that she had fully recovered her reason. to see the charges under which the Capand they set about to secure her release. tain was tried on March 13. An order was procured yesterday commanding the asylum officials to show the Senate Committee," said Mr. Martin, cause why she should not be discharged. "It is unfortunate," said Mr. House, shortly before noon to-day and was set

SEELY STARTS TO-NIGHT.

Defaulter Arraigned Before a Chiengo Commissioner.

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—Samuel C. Seely, the New York bank defaulter, was taken before United States Communioner Wirt for preliminary examination to-day. President Crane, of the National Shoe apactor of common schools for the Fourth District, ile takes the place of Joseph Brusil, a jeweller, of 25 Avenus A, who resigned.

Police Board Forced to Adjourn the Westervelt Trial.

The Captain's Lawyer Protested, but Was Overruled.

the Next Meeting.

Police Capt. Josiah Westervelt, of the East One Hundred and Fourth street the Police Board this morning on the charge of permitting policy acops to flourish in his precinct.

CAPT. WESTERVELT.

His accuser was Vincent Majewski, "Frenchy," and who lives at 349 East "Frenchy" appeared before the Lexow testimony he rattled off a list of a score has been doing a moderate business.

He has not been a member of the Cof-in Capt. Westervelt's precinct. When the case was called Mr. House entered a plea of not guilty, and asked "The papers are in the pos

"for I don't think you have a right to try a man twice for the same offence."
"I think the Board will go on with the case," said Mr. Martin.
Then Mr. House moved that that par-ticular place be stricken off the present charges.
Ther was an argument over this, durcharges. Ther was an argument over this, dur-ing which Mr. House said he would have the papers, even if he had to summon the Recorder-elect and every one else connected with the Lexow Committee. A truce was patched up, and "Frenchy" was called by Mr. Wellman as the first witness.

vitness.
Q. What's your business? A. I opened a policy for preliminary examination to-day.

President Crane, of the National Shoe and Leather Bank, was present and outlined the crime, and Seely was held under 120,000 bond. He walved examination.

He will be taken to New York at 5.30 o'clock to-night.

Hoffman Made School Trustee.

Mayor Gilroy to-day appointed John L. Hogman, who is in the frame business in Fourteesth street, and liver at 78 East Fourth Street, an inspector of common schools for the Fourth District. He takes the place of Joseph Brusil, a jeweller, of 35 Avenus A, who resigned.

Westervelt demands that the Board proceed.

President Martin looked out of the Window and said, hurriedly:

"The Board stands adjourned until this day week at 10 o'clock."

COFFEE JOBBER FAILS.

John C. Lloyd Names Bennis A. Delancy as Assignee.

The fallure of John C. Lloyd, who carried on a coffee jobbing business at 29 Front street, under the name of John C. Lloyd & Co., was announced this morning. Dennis A. Delancy is named as the assignee, and preferences are given to Foote & Knevals, Flint & Co., Steinwinder, Stoffregen & Co., of this city, and E. Levering & Co., of Baltimore.

Mr. Lloyd has been in business for many years and failed about five years ago. At that time he settled up, with the assistance of friends, and since then has been doing a moderate business.

He has not been a member of years, The failure did not have any effect on the market. The amounts of the liabilities and assets are not yet known, but it less and the cellar are dirt. The collar is filthy with old rags, strave was wet and filips and the cellar are dirt. The collar is filthy with old rags, strave was wet and filips, has not porticed with many constructions. The failure did not have any effect on the second floor and the cellar are dirt. The colla He has not been a member of the Coffee Exchange for a number of years. The failure did not have any effect on the market. The amounts of the liabilities and assets are not yet known, but it is said that the liabilities will not be heavy. Neither Mr. Lloyd nor Assignee Delaney could be found after the failure was announced.

CRAZY AMONG THE SHOPPERS

An Insane Man Escapes and Is Chased Across Union Square. An unknown patient, temporarily in An unknown patient, temporarily insane, while being transferred from New York Hospital to Bellevue Hospital, at 1.30 o'clock this afternoon, created great excitement in the streets about Union square by escaping from the ambulance. He ran across Union square and up Fourth avenue to Eighteenth street, with a large crowd in hot pursuit. When finally captured he was ready to drop with exhaustion. He was put in the ambulance and taken to Bellevue Hospital.

1 DIDN'T JUMP THE BRIDGE.

Whistler Swam Under It in a Rub ber Suit, That's All. George Whistler, who was for years associated with Capt. Paul Boynton, this morning awam from the foot of East Twenty-third street to the Battery clad in one of Capt. Boynton's rubber sulta. Passengers and pedestrians on the Brooklyn Bridge saw him pass underneath, and their talk of the affair gaverise to the rumor that he had jumped from the big structure. The bridge police say no man jumped.

PRICE ONE CENT.

TRINITY'S BAD TENEMENTS.

Shocking State of Affairs Revealed by Health Board's Investigation.

CELLARS REEK WITH FILTH.

Roofs Leak, Walls Damp, Yards Dangerous and Foul Odors Everywhere.

NINETEEN HOMES INSPECTED.

Instead of the Sant

partment, to-day received reports from the Sanitary Inspectors sent out to in-vestigate the condition of the tenementuses owned by the Trinity Co case a shocking state of affairs In nearly every instance the se the atmosphere, the walls are the yards dangerous, and in some the cellars were found to the celiars were found to be resulted had been there.

Q. Who was your runner—the man whe brought you your slips? A Jake Adams, and he tried to kill me when I went before the Lexew Committee.

Then the teatimony was shifted to the place 204 East Ninety-eighth street.
This brought Mr. Wellman and Mr. House in conflict again and, during their argument the witness arose from his challes and fook a glass towards Mr. House.

"Sit down," said President Martin, pointling at him, and he subsided.
The Commissioners speedily found they had an untrustworthy lot of charges on their hands—a job lot, as it were—which Mr. House was pulling and tearing all to pieces, and under which it di not seem as though they could convolt the Captain on trial.

President Martin asked his brother Commissioners if they would adjourn, so as to give them a chance to have the charges patched 3p.

"The matter was finally adjusted, and Mr. Weilman was instructed to retire gracefully from the field, but to be sure and take the Commissioners along.

"I move the Board adjourns to prespice and take the Commissioners along.
"The Board will grant the motion made by Mr. Weilman, and will adjourn to this day week," said Mr. Martin, breathing a great sigh of relief.

"Till take an exception," began Mr. House, "and I want to say right here that the Board has notright to adjourn after having once commenced this action. The defendant is here, and all his witnesses are here, and we are ready to go n with the case, and Capt. Westervelt demands that the Board of the residual not be questioned the original and two two completes trees with a do any investigating. Instead the call on any investigating. Instead the call on any investigating. Instead the do any investigating. Callum.

The first house visited to two counts of the second flows, was entired to two coun

GARVEY MAY GET OFF.

Novel Plea Set Up in the Case of the Astor Tramp. William H. Stayton, lawyer for Joi Garvey, the Astor tramp, sprung a surprise on the prosecution and the court this morning, when Garvey was called in Part II. of General Sessito be sentenced by Judge Firmarahi Mr. Stayton asked the Judge to charge Garvey, because the Jury in to found him guilty, as charged the indictment, of entering Mr. Asto house with the intent to commit felony, a larceny or malicious in chief. The verdict was guilty of an ing a fouse for the purpose of co mitting a crime. This, Mr. Staycontended, might mean any house, this city or elsewhere, and the or might be something else than if provided in the statute. He was rected to submit papers to the Coto-morrow morning and to serve th upon the District-Attorney, Garvey, who apparently took no greet in the proceedings, was manded another day.